HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, all bow while saying: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Hanging on By a Thread: Seeking Peace Amidst Challenges

Some conversations begin a little awkwardly. When visiting recently with a priest in a sacristy before a funeral, he somewhat sheepishly inquired: “Have you experienced a drop?”
For a split second I was a bit confused. He elaborated: “We are down 8% in stewardship,” and he was wondering if he was alone. A certain malaise has set in among many priests and laity alike. His sigh of relief only came after he was assured that indeed he is not alone. Many parishes are experiencing the same trends. A common denominator seems to be the fallout from 2018’s “Summer of Shame,” surrounding the disgraced former Cardinal, Theodore McCarrick followed up by the report of the Pennsylvania Grand Jury.
The deleterious effects of these events are clearly being felt, both across this Archdiocese and the nation. Still, while the roots run much deeper than a single scandal, some people are quite honestly “hanging on by a thread” to their Catholic faith, so demoralized do they feel.

At the same time, people do not come to church Sunday after Sunday in order to hear bad news or to see long faces from the pulpit. No, people come to be refreshed and nourished with the sacraments. That will continue to be the focus of my efforts here, even while acknowledging people’s concerns about living a Catholic life in today’s society. Recently, the U.S. bishops approved several follow-up protocols to the papal document Vos estis which requires more universal standardized procedures for dealing with abuse and episcopal oversight issues. I hope and pray that a definitive response to the questions about how a man such as Theodore McCarrick was able to rise through the ranks and act with such apparent impunity is forthcoming. We long for greater transparency from Church leadership and wonder how much longer we will have to wait? Absent a comprehensive response, the mistrust may only increase.

We would all be wise to focus our attention on what is within our purview whenever we are tempted to discouragement. It makes little sense to focus on areas that are beyond our scope. I express my tremendous gratitude to all who have remained steadfast in the midst of such turbulent waters. Words do not adequately express my respect for you lay faithful who continue to lead your Catholic lives despite the challenges and disappointments. Scripture tells us, “… sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence, keeping your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who defame your good conduct in Christ may themselves be put to shame.” (1 Peter 3:15-16)

Ultimately, our reason for hope is found in the person of Jesus Christ. After that, my hope lies in the resilient members of the lay faithful, who continue to inspire me in countless ways. Without volunteers, relatively little could be accomplished in this parish. We have an able and motivated staff, but it is relatively small. I recently read that the Basilica Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington DC boasts a 180 member staff.
That floored me! There’s no way that we could even come close to a payroll of that magnitude. We simply do not have the resources. Nevertheless, when I observe zealous volunteers for our children’s choir camp or see the hours of work it takes to create beautiful floral arrangements throughout the year; when I consider the generous souls who volunteer after Mass on Wednesday evenings to sweep the church, I am truly heartened.

The Church needs you and we value you. The first time I spoke before my fellow college seminarians– I was petrified. I immediately realized “This is much tougher than I thought!” Our lectors proclaim the Word of God so effectively. Our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion battle road closures and weather to ensure that they fulfill their assigned duties. Our altar servers are flawless in the execution of their service, and our tour guides provide a wonderful introduction to the Cathedral to our many welcome visitors. I am only scratching the surface with these remarks, but I write them to remind all of how important you are to the life of this parish. As we gather behind the Sacristy following the 10:00 a.m. Mass today, our picnic is but a small token of a deep appreciation for your commitment to the Cathedral.

- A U.S. Supreme Court decision (7-2) allows the World War I Bladensburg Cross to remain on public land in Washington D.C. While a victory for religious freedom, the written opinion reveals complicated underpinnings. Parts of the majority decision trouble me, especially the argument that claims that the Cross is not an overtly religious symbol. If that’s the case, it could turn out to be a Pyrrhic victory at best.

- Our 2018-19 fiscal year ends today. I am profoundly grateful for your support in challenging times. We will make necessary adjustments as we establish our new annual budget. In light of recent trends, it must be on our collective radar to address ways to increase revenue needed to maintain our valuable parish programs, while caring for the Church.

- According to a Wall St. Journal/NBC News poll, just 29% of Americans attend religious services weekly, down from 41% in 2000. Conversely, 26% never attend services, up from 14% in 2000, while 36% millennials (18-34 years old) never attend. Ouch—we surely have our work cut out for us!

- Tomorrow (Monday) evening, we will offer a special Mass for Vocations with Archbishop Hebda, observing the Feast of St. Junipero Serra. The Serra Clubs of the Twin Cities work hard to promote vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. I hope you will join us. I remain convinced that God is calling young people from our own homes to serve as priests and religious. May they hear His voice and know of our prayerful support.

- Mark your calendars. An extremely talented Choir is making its way to the Cathedral. Libera, a Boys’ Choir (ages 7-16) out of South London, UK was here in 2011 and returns next month on Friday July 26. They have a unique sound, one that I find incredibly engaging. They sang at two Papal Masses as well as for a U.S. President! We try to balance free and ticketed concerts so that all may enjoy beautiful music. This will be well worth the price of admission. Please join us. We do not want to be outdone by the Cathedral in St. Louis the following week!

- Would you consider spending an hour in Eucharistic Adoration, once per week or once every other week? We are desperately in need of more adorers for the Cana Chapel, especially on Fridays. Please call the parish office for more information.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. John L. Ubel
Rector

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION PICNIC, TODAY!
Today, following the 10:00 a.m. Mass, we will be hosting a picnic to celebrate three very special occasions: 1) express our appreciation for the many Cathedral volunteers whose dedication assists us in effectively servicing the parish and community, 2) honor our long time retiring trustees, Mary Bonnabeau and Bill Daly, for their years of service to the parish, and 3) acknowledge Fr. Ubel’s 30 years as a priest. (Ordained on May 27, 1989). Look for the tent on the west side of the sacristy. Hope to see you there!

PETER’S PENCE COLLECTION: TODAY!
“A little mercy makes the world less cold and more just” – Pope Francis, Angelus, 2013
The Peter’s Pence Collection provides funds for Pope Francis to respond to those suffering from war, oppression and natural disasters. For example, funds have aided the victims of the powerful 2017 earthquake in the southern part of Lesbos, Greece, where the village of Vrisa was destroyed. The Peter’s Pence collection will be taken the weekend of June 29 and 30. Your generosity is an opportunity to join with Pope Francis and support his works of charity around the world, so please be as generous as you are able. Envelopes may be found at the altar and are included in the envelope packets for parishioners.

CELEBRATE THE LIFE & HOLINESS OF ST. JUNIPERO SERRA, JULY 1
All are invited to join Archbishop Hebda and members of the St. Paul Serra Club at the 5:15 p.m. Mass on Monday, July 1, the feast day of St. Junipero Serra, an 18th century Catholic priest and Franciscan friar, founder of a string of missions from Mexico to San Francisco, California, and patron of the Serra Club. Serrans are an organization of lay men and women whose mission is to promote and support vocations to the priesthood, diocesan and consecrated religious life in the Catholic Church. Hospitality and fellowship follows in Hayden Hall immediately after Mass.

MOBILE BLOOD DRIVE, JULY 16
July is the month of the Precious Blood of Jesus. On Tuesday, July 16, from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m., please consider participating in the Mobile Blood Drive located on Selby Avenue by the flagpole. If you are at least 17 years of age, 110 lbs. and in good health, you are eligible to give blood. Your blood is precious and lifesaving; one pint can save three lives! The Franciscan Brothers of Peace are presenting the play “Thank God Ahead of Time: A Drama about the Life and Times of Blessed Solanus Casey.” written and produced by Molly Delaney Druffner, directed by Mary Kratz and performed by the John Paul II Players—all from Saint Mary’s Catholic Church in Stillwater. You will have the opportunity to hear from Br. Richard Merling, OFM Cap., Vice Postulator for the cause of Canonization and Director of the Father Solanus Guild; and from members of Blessed Solanus’ family, including his grandniece and grandnephew. The play will be presented at Saint Patrick’s Church on Saint Paul’s west side on Sunday, July 28, 2019 at 7:00 p.m. The Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis celebrates the optional memorial of Blessed Solanus on July 30.
VOICES FROM THE ARCHIVES

The thoughts of His Heart for all generations. . .

In April, 1931, Maginnis and Walsh wrote to Msgr. Lawrence Ryan, “We are terribly disappointed at the news that you can proceed with only the Sacred Heart Chapel.” They were not alone. Archbishop John Murray’s decision to stop work on the interior of the Cathedral was a difficult one. But the cause was beyond his control: the Crash of 1929 drove the country into the Great Depression. The Archbishop was determined to conserve resources so that he could help those in need in the parish and in the larger community. Mosaics planned for the space behind the Sacred Heart statue and the ceiling were cancelled. Marble and a painted coffered ceiling were substituted.

But early in 1931, economic conditions created an opportunity for the purchase of some of the rarest marble in the Cathedral: Numidian Crimson marble, Rojo Alcante, and Red onyx from Morocco. “The marble was purchased for a fraction of the original price. Due to the economic crisis, there was an enormous overload of foreign stone sitting idle on New York docks.” In the end, the variations of marble in the Sacred Heart Chapel presented sharply contrasting colors intensified by the green Tinos floor from Greece. The rail of light Botticino with posts of Portora Black, carved from remnants of the Portora columns in the sanctuary, provided another contrast. Against this background, the statue of the Sacred Heart was placed in 1933, to complete the fourth chapel in the Cathedral. The Catholic Bulletin for July that year, called Sydney Woollett’s “heroic marble statue . . . a magnificent figure, the Divine Savior issuing His invitation to mankind, ‘Come to me, all ye who labor, and I will give you rest.’” The message was not lost on those who struggled during those difficult years. Msgr. Lawrence Ryan saw another meaning: “The symbol of the loving heart, enshrined in this majestic setting may be seen as two-edged: the penitence.

Note: Woollett’s full size model of the statue of the Sacred Heart is in the Cathedral museum storage area, along with full size models of the statues of Saints Matthew and John the Evangelist. ACSP.

NINE FIRST FRIDAYS DEVOTION

Looking to add an ingredient to your spiritual life this summer? Consider the Nine First Fridays. When our Lord appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a French Visitation nun, he asked her to spread Devotion to the Sacred Heart. Part of that devotion consists in receiving Holy Communion on the first Friday of each month for a period of nine months, in order to receive the grace of final penitence.
