THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 61:1-3abcd

The Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the lowly and to give them the oil of gladness.

Lectura del libro del profeta Isaías.

El espíritu del Señor está sobre mí, porque me ha ungido
y me ha enviado para anunciar la buena nueva a los pobres,
a curar a los de corazón quebrantado,
a proclamar el perdón a los cautivos,
la libertad a los prisioneros,
y a pregonar el año de gracia del Señor,
el día de la venganza de nuestro Dios.
El Señor me ha enviado a consolar a los afligidos,
los afligidos de Sión,
a cambiar su ceniza en diadema,
sus lágrimas en aceite perfumado de alegría
y su abatimiento, en cánticos.

Reader

The word of the Lord.

Assembly

Thanks be to God.
Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord.
My soul yearns and pines
  for the courts of the LORD.
My heart and my flesh
  cry out for the living God.
Even the sparrow finds a home,
  and the swallow a nest
  in which she puts her young—
Your altars, O LORD of hosts,
  my king and my God!
Blessed are they who dwell in your house!
  continually they praise you.
I had rather one day in your courts
  than a thousand elsewhere;
I had rather lie at the threshold of the house of my God
  than dwell in the tents of the wicked.

SECOND READING

Christ was acclaimed by God as high priest, in the line of Melchizedek.

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God,
  to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.
He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring,
  for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people.
No one takes this honor upon himself
  but only when called by God,
  just as Aaron was.
In the same way,
  it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest,
  but rather the one who said to him:
    You are my son:
    this day I have begotten you;”
just as he says in another place:
    You are a priest forever
    according to the order of Melchizedek.
In the days when he was in the flesh,
  he offered prayers and supplications with loud cries and tears
  to the one who was able to save him from death,
and he was heard because of his reverence.
Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered;
and when he was made perfect,
he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, declared by God high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Reader Palabra de Dios.
Assembly Te alabamos, Señor.

THE RITE OF ORDINATION

ELECTION OF THE CANDIDATES

Deacon Let those to be ordained Priests come forward.

As each candidate’s name is called, he goes before the Archbishop, to whom he makes a sign of reverence. The Rector of the Saint Paul Seminary says:

Rector Most Reverend Father, holy Mother Church asks you to ordain these, our brothers, to the responsibility of the Priesthood.

Archbishop Do you know them to be worthy?

Rector  After inquiry among the Christian people and upon the recommendation of those responsible, I testify that they have been found worthy.

Archbishop  Relying on the help of the Lord God and our Savior Jesus Christ, we choose these, our brothers, for the Order of the Priesthood.

Assembly  Thanks be to God. All present affirm their assent with applause.

Homily

Archbishop Hebda

Promise of the Elect

After the homily, the elect alone rise and stand before the Archbishop.

The Archbishop asks the candidates to declare their intention to undertake the office of the priesthood and to exercise their ministry worthily in imitation of Christ the High Priest and Good Shepherd.

The candidates promise respect and obedience to the Archbishop and to his successors.

The Archbishop concludes:

May God who has begun the good work in you bring it to fulfillment.

Litany of Supplication

Through Christ our Lord.

Assembly  Amen.

The elect proceed one by one to the Archbishop and kneel before him.

The Assembly remains standing.

LAYING ON OF HANDS

The ancient symbol of the imposition of hands is the effective sign of the permanent conferral of the priestly office. The Archbishop lays his hands over the head of each of the elect without saying anything.

After the candidates have returned to their places, the Deacon invites the people to be seated.

Then the Priests impose hands to signify the candidates’ incorporation into the presbyterate.

MOTET  Cathedral Schola Cantorum

If ye love me  Thomas Tallis

If ye love me, keep my commandments, and I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth.

Jn 14:15

With the elect kneeling before him, the Archbishop says the Prayer of Ordination.

Archbishop  raw near, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, author of human dignity: it is you who apportion all graces. Through you everything progresses; through you all things are made to stand firm. To form a priestly people you appoint ministers of Christ your Son by the power of the Holy Spirit, arranging them in different orders.

Already in the earlier covenant offices arose, established through mystical rites: when you set Moses and Aaron over your people to govern and sanctify them, you chose men next in rank and dignity to accompany them and assist them in their task.

So too in the desert you implanted the spirit of Moses in the hearts of seventy wise men; and with their help he ruled your people with greater ease.

So also upon the sons of Aaron you poured an abundant share of their father's plenty, that the number of the priests prescribed by the Law might be sufficient for the sacrifices of the tabernacle, which were a shadow of the good things to come.

But in these last days, holy Father, you sent your Son into the world, Jesus, who is Apostle and High Priest of our confession. Through the Holy Spirit he offered himself to you as a spotless victim; and he made his Apostles, consecrated in the truth, sharers in his mission. You provided them also with companions to proclaim and carry out the work of salvation throughout the whole world.

And now we beseech you, Lord, in our weakness, to grant us these helpers that we need to exercise the priesthood that comes from the Apostles.
Grant, we pray, Almighty Father, to these your servants, the dignity of the Priesthood; renew deep within them the spirit of holiness; may they henceforth possess this office, which comes from you, O God, and is next in rank to the office of Bishop; and by the example of their manner of life, may they instill right conduct.

May they be worthy co-workers with our Order, so that by their preaching and through the grace of the Holy Spirit the words of the Gospel may bear fruit in human hearts and reach even to the ends of the earth.

Together with us, may they be faithful stewards of your mysteries, so that your people may be renewed in the waters of rebirth and nourished from your altar; so that sinners may be reconciled and the sick raised up. May they be joined with us, Lord, in imploring your mercy for the people entrusted to their care and for all the world.

And so may the full number of the nations, gathered together in Christ, be transformed into your one people and made perfect in your Kingdom. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

Assembly
Amen.

GUIDELINES FOR RECEIPT OF HOLY COMMUNION

After Communion is distributed to those in the sanctuary, the newly-ordained Priests will approach the assembly; do not get out of your pews. They will distribute Communion while walking through the empty pew in front of where you are located. If you plan to receive Communion, please stand; if not, please be seated. Apply sanitizer, keep your mask on, but do not wear gloves. As the Deacon approaches, he will say, “The Body of Christ.” Reply “Amen” while wearing the mask. Extend both hands, palms up. Keep your hands stationary and flat to avoid extrinsic movements that could result in the Deacon touching your hands. Hold your left hand on top and your... right hand beneath (left-handed persons may switch “left” and “right”). After the Priest places the host in your left hand, pick up the host with the fingers of your right hand, and with your left hand pull the mask away from your mouth. Consume the host, and then replace the mask over your face with your left hand. Apply sanitizer after handling your mask.
