

Coro Guida at the Cathedral

The music department at the Cathedral is looking for volunteers this summer to comprise a Coro Guida, or Guide Choir, to lead the congregational singing at the Saturday 7 p.m. and the Sunday 12 p.m. Mass. No musical training is necessary, just a love for singing and a desire to improve the congregational participation at the Cathedral by joining with others who share the same love.

Interested volunteers will be asked to come to the loft at either of these Masses ten minutes before Mass begins, in order to be present for the singing of the first hymn. (It will be essential to arrive before the first hymn begins.) To access the loft, you may either take the stairs or the elevator, located at the rear of the Cathedral. The Coro Guida will begin the weekend of June 20/21 and continue through the summer. We are hoping for a minimum of six people, but more would be wonderful.

Please consider enhancing the liturgies by joining with others to encourage the assembly to lift its voice in song with enthusiasm, vitality and joyfulness.
